

Supervision Levels
Pretrial Supervision Level	Basic Terms	Intermediate Terms	Enhanced Terms
Low	Court reminder, provide updated information	Basic plus no contact with victim
Moderate	Court reminder, provide updated information	Basic plus referral to services, testing, search	EMP program
High	Court reminder, provide updated information	Basic plus referral to services, testing, search	Basic and intermediate terms plus EMP program, DRC reporting
Types of Violations
Minor Violations	Moderate Violations	Severe Violations
Generally involves violations that show a lapse in judgment and do not cause harm to defendant or others.	Violations that appear to show a disregard for court orders and Pretrial Supervision, but did not cause harm or potential harm to others.	Violations that appear to show a willful and/or repeated disregard for court orders and Pretrial Supervision, and/or violations which cause or present a risk of harm to themselves and/or others.
New Charges – Traffic infractions / Petty Offenses	Failure to Report a New Arrest	New Serious Misdemeanor and Felony Criminal Charges
Failure to Report Police Contact	Failure to Appear in Court	Failure to comply with Stay Away/Restraining Orders
Failure to Answer Calls From Pretrial Services	Home Curfew Violation	Failure to Report for Initial Intake Within Two Days of Court Referral
Failure to Call in at Designated Date/Time	Leaving State w/out Authorization	Unable to Locate Defendant Client for Compliance Checks
Missed Scheduled Office Visit	Multiple Missed Scheduled Office Visits	Tampering with a Urine Sample
GPS Minor Violations	GPS Moderate Violations	GPS Severe Violations
Failure to Report Address or Phone Number Changes	Failure to Download Electronic Monitoring Equipment	Tampering with an Electronic Monitoring Device
First Positive UA/Breathalyzer Test	2-3 Positive UA/Breathalyzer Tests	4 or more Positive UA/Breathalyzer Tests
Failure to Report After Court	Repeated Minor Level Violations	Repeated Moderate Level Violations
Violation Response Levels
Pretrial Supervision Level	Minor Violation	Moderate Violation	Severe Violation
Low	Low Response	Low Response	High Response
Average	Low Response	Medium Response	High Response
High	Medium Response	High Response	High Response
Types of Responses (May include one or more of the following actions within any one response type)*
Low Response	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verbal warning • May consult with attorneys • Consult with family members and friends, etc.
Medium Response	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meet with defendant • Increase supervision levels (increase UAs, BAs, etc.) • May consult with attorneys • Mandatory contact with attorneys when defendant has positive drug and/or alcohol test

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Request an imposed curfew • May return to Court
High Response	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meet with defendant • Must send Notice paperwork to the D.A. & notify defense attorney • Contact law enforcement • Detain and return to Court
DUI Defendant Special Response	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For DUI defendants on basic supervision, if a positive substance test occurs, the defendant is summonsed to a future court appearance. • For DUI defendants on moderate supervision, if a positive substance test occurs, the defendant will be summonsed to see a judicial officer the within 72 hours. • For DUI defendants on enhanced supervision, if a positive substance test occurs, the defendant will be arrested and booked into jail.
Domestic Violation Special Response	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For DV defendants on supervision, if physical contact occurs with the victim, it will elicit a High Response, and will most likely result in his/her return to custody • For DV defendants on supervision, if non-physical contact occurs with the victim, it will elicit a Medium Response, and it may result in his/her return to custody or Court • For DV defendants on supervision, and drinking and/or drug use occurs, it will elicit a Medium Response.